MARCH 26TH PERFORMERS & SPEAKERS 5-8 PM

MARCH 27TH PANELISTS 11-3 PM

MARCH 28TH SPEAKERS 11-3 PM

Through a panel Manasie Akpaliapik and Ruben Komangapik will share about the economic influences on sculpted art peices, the valuation process, and the interaction between carvers and market forces. Followed by a hands-on demonstration of alabaster carving by Manasie, where he will showcase his tools and the process of carving. Dine with these trailblazers and enjoy country food!

MARCH 29TH PERFORMERS & SPEAKERS 10-2 PM

The final day, Theresie Tungilik discusses royalties and intellectual property rights for artists. A panel including Sheena, John, and Ruben will provide tips and tricks to breaking out of your shell and to confidently enter the world of art. The conference concludes with a final musical performance. Lunch and desserts to follow!
